

Special Info

Currency

The Turkish Republic Monetary Unit was changed from Turkish Lira (TL) to New Turkish Lira (YTL) which 1 YTL = 1.000.000 TL. Both will be in circulation till the end of 2005. Exchange rates for foreign money are determined by The Central Bank of Turkey (www.tcmb.gov.tr) daily and announced in the newspapers. Convertible foreign money can be exchanged at the Airports, Banks, Hotels and Exchange Offices with a small commission (about 2%). All major credit cards (Visa, Master, Eurocard and American Express) are accepted in most hotels and shops.
